

PNW-SRM Newsletter

January 2023

A Message From Our President

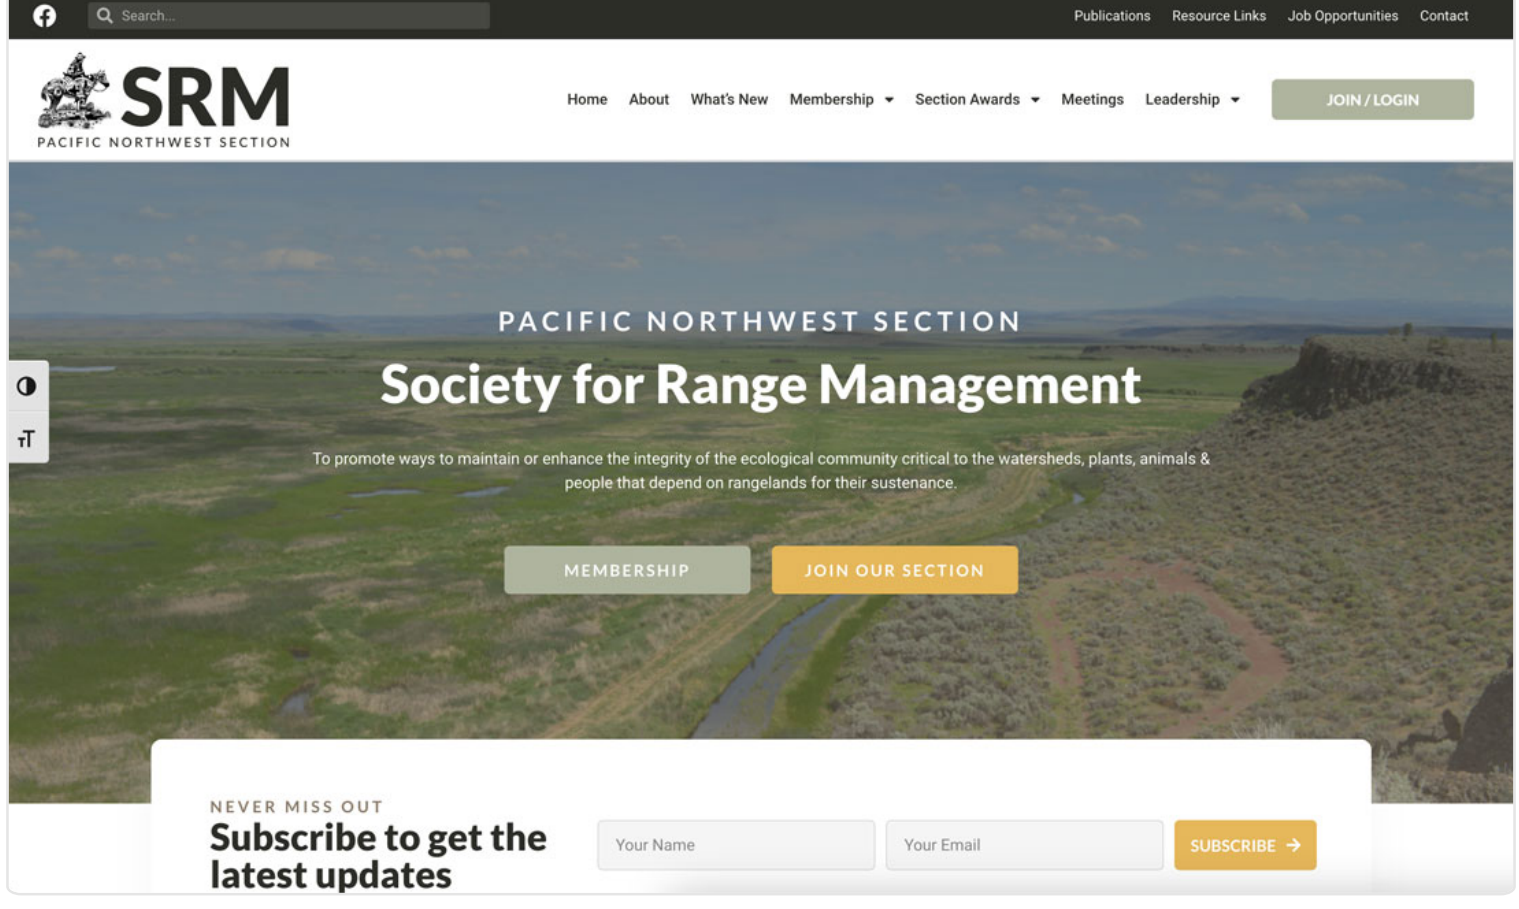

Tim Ross, PNW-SRM President

Greetings my fellow SRMers! I've been reflecting on the impact of our collective work and have some thoughts to share with you. In chaos such as weather disasters, Covid, recession, housing prices etc. we remain committed to our vision for this organization, as a group of engaged and experienced professionals...

Read the President's Message

We Have a New Look!

The Pacific Northwest Section has a new look and functionality for our website – www.pnwsrcm.org. The section's Communications Task Group has been working for the past year to modernize and update our website. The group's main objective was to have an integrated communications platform that includes a new website, newsletter, social media, and more!

Read More & Get Involved!

Please follow and share our new Facebook page!

What's Coming

Dedication to Range and Forestry Stewardship

Join us for a virtual tour of Dixie Meadow Company, John and Lynne Breese's Ranching Operation. This will be an online event using Zoom.

When: Thursday, February 9, 3-4 p.m.

Learn More & Get Details

PNW-SRM Information & Updates

A Look at Regenerative Ranch Management

By Doug Warnock, Greener Pastures

Golden West Cattle LLC with Hercules Farms Inc. was one of the six locations visited at the recent meeting and tour of the Pacific Northwest Chapter of the Society for Range Management. This ranch, owned and managed by the Rex Harder family, is located near Sprague Lake in Lincoln County, southwest of Spokane, Wash...

Read Article

PNW SRM Annual Meeting Recap

By Lynne Breese & Claudia Ingham

The creative thinking, plus time and effort which "Team Washington" put into creating the PNW Annual Fall Meeting paid off: the tours and meeting (and food) were fantastic. Starting with the opening night social, it was so special to see old friends and make new friends. Speaking of "old" friends, Andy McDonald from BC...

Read Article

View PNW-SRM 2023 Leadership

view this email in your browser

Copyright © 2023 PNW-SRM, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

Connect with Us:

